

BEVERLY SPRING CLASSIC

May 16-17, 2026

Beverly Equestrian | The Plains, VA

A World-Class Equestrian Venue in Virginia Horse Country.

Jumper Level 2 ♦ Hunter Regional B ♦ Equitation

Thoughtfully Structured Hunter, Equitation & Jumper Divisions

The Beverly Spring Classic will offer a carefully designed slate of hunter, equitation, and jumper divisions that prioritizes regional rider development, accessibility, and sustainable progression within a USEF-rated environment.

HUNTER DIVISIONS

Clear Pathways from Entry Level to 3'0"

The hunter division lineup emphasizes introductory through mid-level sections, providing riders with meaningful opportunities to advance within a supportive, well-defined framework.

Crossrails, Short Stirrup, Long Stirrup

USHJA Hunter from 2' through 3'

Low Child/Adult Amateur Hunter
Child/Adult Amateur Hunter

The structure reflects recognized progression norms, ensuring riders can move forward with confidence while remaining well prepared for the broader competition season.

EQUITATION DIVISIONS

Education-First, Rider-Focused Competition

Equitation offerings at the Beverly Spring Classic are designed to support riders actively building fundamentals and ring confidence, while creating a bridge toward higher-level competition.

Age-based Equitation Flat Classes

Junior/Adult Equitation Sections

A progressive lineup of Medal Classes, ranging from Introductory Opportunities through National Offerings

The emphasis remains squarely on horsemanship, rider education, and progressive skill development, preserving equitation as a discipline rooted in preparation and confidence-building.

JUMPER DIVISIONS

Accessible Progression for Riders —and Purposeful Development for Young Horses

The jumper schedule provides a complete and thoughtfully tiered competitive ladder, supporting riders transitioning from local competition into rated jumper environments.

Junior/Amateur/Open Divisions .65-1.15m
(including Classics)

WIHS/NAL Junior/Amateur Jumper
1.10m/1.15m & 1.20m/1.25m

Younger Jumper Classes

In addition, the schedule includes younger jumper classes designed to support professionals developing horses early in the season, offering appropriate mileage, ring exposure, and confidence-building opportunities ahead of the summer show circuit.

A Show Designed for Regional Riders

Across all three disciplines, the Beverly Spring Classic is intentionally structured to meet riders where they are, offering a supportive, well-defined pathway into rated competition while remaining firmly rooted in the needs of the regional equestrian community.

For more information, visit:

beverlyequestrian.com/usef-rated-shows